On the left side of the road, a white vehicle with a thatched roof, which is the 'Tikibus', is parked. The background is filled with numerous tall palm trees and other tropical vegetation under a clear sky.

THE STORY

Tikibus Bali, the open-air tiki cocktail bus that turns a 90-minute ride into a full night out, has moved to Berawa, Canggu — steps from Atlas Beach Fest, Finns and the area's buzzing bar scene. Where the rest of the neighbourhood is a fixed venue, Tikibus is the one bar that comes to you and moves through the night.

Guests climb aboard an open-sided bus with a thatched palm-leaf roof and warm string lights, settle around a real wooden bar counter, and a mixologist crafts cocktails to order while hosting the vibe. They pick the playlist, sing along and meet new people — every ride is shaped by the group on board.

"People remember Tikibus because it is theirs for the night. The bar moves, the music is yours, and the mixologist makes it feel like a private party."

— Tikibus Bali

Why it makes a great story

- It moves — an open-air cocktail bar on wheels through Canggu, not another bar stool.
- Real craft, with a host — a mixologist builds every drink to order and runs the energy.
- Intimate and social — two buses seat up to 10 guests each, or 18 together.
- Loved, with proof — a 4.9-star rating across 193 Google reviews.
